lindaramone Hello 🌟 RAMONES 🌟 #Repost @johnnyramone

"With their first album ready to release in early #1976 the Ramones were booked into M.P.C.'s TV studio to shoot what Rock Scene Magazine would refer to as a 'special 20 minute full colour surprise TV show'. I was there taking pictures. Arturo Vega's backdrop with the band's name seems to sag a bit, but that would add to the punkiness of the production, it was hoped!" - Danny Fields @korduroy13 djeezyweezy May I brag a little? I saw the Ramones like 8 times. ALL lineups from Ritchie through CJ and went to an Uncle Floyd taping in Newark. I'm like that guy talking about going to Woodstock and Altamont sandylinter I remember talking to John about Uncle Floyd's. I never heard of him. It was a children's show. John who was quite a few years younger than me, though uncle Floyd's was great
